MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Executive Order 12065

25X1

Can you prepare a talk drawing on the language of what I had to say about the Freedom of Information Act in the talk to the Republicans Abroad and the talk to the Thirteenth Annual Symposium sponsored by the Center for the Study of the Presidency, and on the cost of screening classified documents. We will spend $21 million by 1988 in order to screen 30% of the documents which the existing Executive Order requires to be reviewed, and then classify only 2% which will be of little or no interest to the public. Use my testimony and the material prepared for the meeting with the publishers to develop how onerous compliance is, as well as damaging to a mission, and how little it produces for the media and how unreliably it informs the public.

See if you can pull this together for use in working for exemption under the Freedom of Information Act.
